Arkansas Heart Hospital announces new Bariatric Surgeon

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (November 15, 2018) — Arkansas Heart Hospital announces the hiring of its latest Bariatric Surgeon, Dr. J.D. Fuller. Fuller is a native Arkansan and most recently served as a surgeon with Arkansas Bariatric Surgery in Little Rock.

“We are pleased and excited to welcome Dr. J.D. Fuller to the Arkansas Heart Hospital family,” said President and COO Drew Jackson, “Dr. Fuller’s passion about health care innovation and his desire to have a huge impact on health in Arkansas and beyond makes him a logical addition to our Bariatric and Metabolic Institute,”

Fuller is a graduate of Baylor University and the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. He specializes in bariatric surgery, advanced laparoscopy and health care innovation. He enjoys spending time with his wife and four children, traveling, flying, being outdoors, reading and starting new adventures.

###

About Arkansas Heart Hospital
Arkansas Heart Hospital is a nationally recognized and award-winning hospital dedicated to the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of cardiovascular disease. Arkansas Heart offers advanced technology teamed with Arkansas’ leading cardiologists and cardiovascular surgeons. Additionally Arkansas Heart physicians are national leaders in the treatment of peripheral artery disease and bariatrics. The hospital operates 30 clinics statewide, seven catheterization labs, three heart-operating suites and a 24-hour Heart Emergency Center. Arkansas Heart Hospital is a training center for physicians from all over the world. Awarded Best Specialty Hospital, Best Cardiologists, Best Nutritionist and Best Vein and Vascular Treatment.